

Teaching Agreement

I, _____ / _____, have read the “deal breakers”
Printed Name Signature

listed below, and if selected as a Creation Gospel trainer, I fully agree to the following conditions:

1. I have incorporated the following teachings of Yeshua into my life as a habit, not a new thing:

- a. Shabbat observance (7th Day, not 1st Day). This includes abstaining from any work that is not directly related to saving or preserving life or alleviating suffering in the Creation.
- b. Keeping the moedim, with like-minded believers unless I live in an isolated location (Passover, Unleavened Bread, Firstfruits, Shavuot, Yom Teruah, Yom Kippur, Sukkot)
- c. Pure sexual conduct, i.e., no sex outside of marriage.
- d. A Torah-taught (not rabbinically) kosher diet
- e. a prayer relationship with the Father

2. I agree not to teach controversial or divisive topics such as Sacred Name, One-House/Two-House, Sighted/Traditional New Moon, Rapture, Deity of Yeshua, Kabbalah, etc. while teaching the Creation Gospel. My personal beliefs will not be represented as those of Dr. Alewine or under the banner of The Creation Gospel. When and if I must discuss or resolve these issues, I will ensure that The Creation Gospel is understood to be separate. The Creation Gospel will be imparted just the way it was transmitted to me. All these issues will be referred to the student’s local congregation if possible. I will not supplant the student’s local leadership.

3. I will not charge anyone or any group for teaching The Creation Gospel. I may be compensated for travel expenses, and I should expect to be lodged and fed if necessary, but payment or an offering will never be demanded. My students will purchase their own workbooks, whether I arrange for a bulk purchase or they purchase them individually. I may accept a freewill offering and bless the home or congregation as Yeshua taught his disciples to do. If students wish to contribute to The Creation Gospel to help with travel expenses to train new teachers and workbooks for the indigent, I will encourage them to send an offering to The Creation Gospel. Our goal is 7,000 trainers from the nations!

4. I will not conduct cross-gender teaching one-on-one to avoid the appearance of impropriety. If individual instruction is the only option, I will set up to teach online or through teleconference rather than meet privately with a student of the opposite sex. I will not accept a teaching assignment if my spouse objects. This is for my safety.

5. I may be pulled from the authorized trainer list if Dr. Alewine is made aware that this agreement is being broken. This will be without debate, and I will receive no further teaching referrals.

6. I am free to refuse any teaching assignment without an adverse affect on my teaching status if I have work or family conflicts, but I will notify Dr. Alewine if I would like to be permanently removed from the training list.

7. In addition, I agree to the following:

a. Creation Gospel Powerpoint presentations provided to me may be copied to print only without prior permission. They may be shared freely.

b. Updated copies of Creation Gospel workbooks provided to me as pdf files are for MY TEACHING USE ONLY. I agree that I will not print copies of the workbooks for anyone else, including students, without express, written permission from the author, or share logos.

c. I understand that the Creation Gospel workbooks are copyrighted, and it is within the author's discretion to give away material to the indigent, not mine. When the author gives written permission, that permission will define how many copies may be made and for whom. I will print no more than the specified number of copies and ensure that the recipient understands that the workbooks may not be re-copied.

d. I have permission to make as many copies of The Creation Gospel test as I wish.

e. I have permission to copy or share the Teaching Model handouts or Powerpoints based on the seven spirits of God in print only.

The above conditions may be amended at a future date, and trainers will be notified of any significant changes. As of this date, I agree to supply the Creation Gospel trainer whose name and signature appear on Page One with training, teaching materials, and teaching opportunities that arise in her/her commuting area.
